Subject: Swimming on Thursday

Hi!

So am I!

I'm looking forward to our outdoor swimming trip on Thursday. I've found two great places where we could go swimming. One of them is at the lake near where I live and the other is at the river about an hour's drive away. Which would you prefer?

Explain

Would it be better for you to go in the morning or the afternoon? I'm going to the sports shop tomorrow to buy a new swimsuit and hat. Do you want to come with me? See you soon!
