Subject: Picnic next week

Hi!

Me too!

I'm really looking forward to our picnic next week! We could have the picnic in the park or maybe have it somewhere else. Where would you prefer?

My brother and his wife and their four young children have asked me if they can join us. Do you think that's a good idea?

After the picnic, we could go to the cinema if you like. Are you free to do that?

Write soon and let me know!

Dani
