Subject: My sister's birthday

Hi! It's my sister Anna's birthday next week! I'm excited about celebrating with her on Saturday.

Me too!

You said you wouldn't mind helping me choose a present for her. Are you free tomorrow morning to come shopping with me?

Yes, suggest where to go shopping

I have a couple of ideas for presents. Do you think it's a good idea to buy her something to wear, or should I just get her a £20 gift card so she can spend it on what she wants?

Explain

Sorry, but...

Shall we have lunch together after shopping?

Anyway, let me know!

Alex
